Bridgeway Will Host 14th Annual Client Conference in Baltimore

(April 1, 2008) Houston, TX -- Bridgeway Software will host its 14th annual Client Conference October 27 - 30 at the Sheraton Inner Harbor Hotel, located in the heart of Baltimore and blocks away from the beautiful Inner Harbor and Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

According to Phil Neely, Bridgeway's Vice President of Client Relations, "This conference is about making the benefits of technology more accessible to our clients. We want to help our corporate and government in-house legal and corporate secretary clients leverage their technology investment to drive performance in their departments."

Bridgeway offers insight on how to streamline processes, information to bring clients up-to-date on legal department trends and compliance issues, and opportunities to network and learn from peers' success stories. The conference agenda is largely based on feedback from clients. Neely explains, "We listen to what they tell us, and those comments make the conference better each year."

Dozens of workshops will cover legal best practices to help clients address their legal technology challenges:

- Mitigate risk
- Ensure compliance
- Optimize resources
- Contain costs
- Manage their legal department's performance.

The conference features discussion panels, client presentations, valuable networking opportunities for clients and partners, and workshops designed for every level of expertise with Bridgeway's key products: eCounsel, LawManager, Secretariat, Smart Invoice and Corridor.

Bridgeway will mix fun with business during two of the conference's highly-rated mixer events. An opening reception at the Sheraton, sponsored by Huron Consulting Group, will welcome conference attendees Monday night. On Wednesday, attendees will enjoy the Bridgeway Bash at Camden Yards, sponsored by SimpsonNeely Group. This networking event will feature live entertainment, sumptuous food, and private tours of the home field of the Baltimore Orioles – a unique and highly praised "retro" major league ballpark.

Bridgeway encourages clients to take advantage of Early Bird registration fees before September 1. A discounted block of guest rooms is available at the Sheraton Inner Harbor until September 24, or while availability lasts. More information is available at www.userconference.com.
